

Stem the Tide

Satisfied, I think you know I'm not,
All my hopes and dreams begun to rot,
Face a flood of discontent each day,
Makes me want to scream out and say

Stem the tide, stem the tide today
Stem the tide, stem the tide, stem the tide, until its pushed back
Stem the tide, stem the tide today
Stem the tide, stem the tide, stem the tide, until
its pushed back

There's all kinds of luck and I've got none,
Unless you're counting bad, then there's a ton,
Sit in useless meetings every day,
Makes me want to bang my head and say

Stem the tide, stem the tide today
Stem the tide, stem the tide, stem the tide, until
its pushed back
Stem the tide, stem the tide today
Stem the tide, stem the tide, stem the tide, until
its pushed back

My outlook is shaped by all I see,
Jumping over waves of stupidity,
It's a flood that knows no sorts of bounds,
Keep looking for dry land all around

Stem the tide, stem the tide today
Stem the tide, stem the tide, stem the tide, until
its pushed back
Stem the tide, stem the tide today
Stem the tide, stem the tide, stem the tide, until
its pushed back

(solo)

Everyone's adrift on their own boat,
Doing what it takes to stay afloat,
So you sail yours and I'll sail mine,
Keep an eye for big waves all the time

Stem the tide, stem the tide today
Stem the tide, stem the tide, stem the tide, until
its pushed back
Stem the tide, stem the tide today
Stem the tide, stem the tide, stem the tide, until its pushed back (repeat x 3)
